R. Charles/M. Byers

Produced by @Markaholic

hey kitty girl - it's your world when you walk the street - steppin' to the beat.
hey kitty girl - get your twirl in the disco heat - catwalk it like the world is your runway.

people say that when the dog is away kitty cats are gonna come out and play nine lives ain't as long as it sounds no time for pussy footing around bad kitty good pussy meow tell papa hey your cat has been found fatal curiosity, feelin feline energy looking back at history, you always land on your feet

hey kitty kitty

Mighty Love f/KUMMERSPECK

RuPaul Charles/Jimmy Harry Produced by KUMMERSPECK

Ooh, ahh
Ooh baby, ahh baby

Darkened clouds and stormy weather
There's no doubt, we're gonna stick together
Ooh baby you know why, cause love is on our side
There's no doubt, we're gonna stick together

Ooh, ahh
Ooh baby, ahh baby

When I look in your eyes, I get hypnotized
And when you're near me, or when you call my name
(My name my name my name) when you call my name

We gon stick together, let's stick together
We gon stick together

We got a mighty love, a mighty mighty love, uh hey baby
We got a mighty love, a mighty mighty love, uh hey baby

Suddenly, any fool could see, that you and me, we got a love supreme (supreme supreme supreme) oh baby, we got a love supreme

Ooh, ahh
Ooh baby, ahh baby

We gon stick together, let's stick together
We gon stick together, let's stick together

We got a mighty love, a mighty mighty love, uh hey baby
We got a mighty love, a mighty mighty love, uh hey baby

Hey Doll

RuPaul Charles/Ellis Miah

Produced by Ellis Miah

Just another day, tell me how it's gon' be
Will you make a change? Will you find some relief?
No use in holding to yesterday's point of view
That shit will never change, never change

Now you're losing sleep - turn the tv off
The higher that you reach, further you get lost
And your thoughts they keep you spinning round and round
Exhale exhale exhale, till you rebound

Hey doll don't despair when the sky's turning gray
Rain falls down upon you but it washes away
All the pain and the heartache - tear drops on your face
Hey doll, hey doll, it's gonna be ok

High above the clouds, no gravity
The sun will always shine, even if you can't see It's always there for you, but'cha gotta let it through The blind will never see, never see

Future seems so bleak, look but just don't stare
Answers that you seek will never find you there
And your thoughts they keep you spinning round and round
Exhale exhale exhale, till you rebound

Lady Cowboy

RuPaul Charles/Mark Byers

Produced by Markaholic

Like an outlaw busting through that door
Hands up, boot scooting on the dance floor
Wanna see - ya see - just how you move
Wanna get cha - get cha - into this groove

Lady - no, you ain't no lady
Lady - and you ain't nobody's baby baby (baby baby)

Cowboy - giddy up giddy up - giddy up get down
Lady Cowboy - giddy up giddy up - swing your partner round and round
Cowboy - giddy up giddy up - giddy up get down
Lady Cowboy - giddy up giddy up - shake that booty to the ground

You been shaking up this one horse town
Everybody talking miles around
Honky tonk is rocking stake your claim
Honky tonk is rocking in your name

It Ain't Over

*RuPaul Charles/Ellis Miah

I heard the music but I - I had to sit one out Wasn't quite broken but my - my friends all had their doubts
I stood on shaky ground, my world turned upside down
Was lost but now i found the rhythm again

So play that funky music
Cause there ain't no way I'm going down

[It ain't over ah ah] Best day is yet to come
[It ain't over ah ah] Till I'm back at number one
Was out but I ain't done - got moves you've never seen
My face on the TV [Stand back I gotta work]

I'm so much better than I - more better than before Picked myself up and now I - I'm back out on the floor Haven't stopped dancing yet, I still got groove to get Till then i'm just gone let my feet lead the way
